

Prayers

Father God, the fourth candle of advent is for Mary, who praises the child she is carrying. Christ foretold His return. Make us watchful for the dawn and prepared for the future.

Gracious God strengthen and heal through the power of the Holy Spirit the sick and suffering. We particularly pray for Jennifer, Sally, Nicky, Simon, Eddie, Gia, Charlie, Mark, Joan, Clare, Peter, Sally, Sandy, Beryl, Pat and Spencer.

Nine Lessons and Carols

This traditional service of music and the story of God's plan with his people is held each year in Capel on the fourth Sunday of Advent. Join us tonight and you will be treated to Joy's unbeatable mince pies and Norman's legendary mulled wine after the service.

Food for thought

The link below is to a recording of an interview with John Bell which took place about a month ago. It speaks of the brokenness of the world today and John in his usual inimitable style addresses the subject. Rev Liz mentioned it in her sermon two weeks ago and hoped that some of you would be able to watch it:

Café church

The Nativity was acted out by the whole congregation. We had wonderful music from Bob and the Band and the dress committee kitted everyone out to play their part

Pavilion café

Next Wednesday will be the last Pavilion Café this year. I'm sure everyone will be looking forward to meeting up again in the new year, starting on 4 January and maybe we will see some new faces.
