

Let Justice and Peace Flow

We continue our 'Season of Creation' this week, the 2nd Sunday of Creationtide. Today's readings continue with Job where God speaks out of the whirlwind! Great stuff. Then the beautiful Psalm 139 that reminds us of how God knows us through and through - that he ultimately is in control. Paul's letter to the Romans describes how God's eternal power and divine nature, invisible though they are, is seen through the things he has made.

Prayers

Let us bring our prayers to the God who knows us before we know our very selves. The one who made us and is present with us always. Therefore we can be confident that God knows our need and hears our prayer. Gracious God strengthen and heal through the power of the Holy Spirit the sick and suffering. We particularly pray for Jennifer, Sally, Nicky, Simon, Eddie, Gia, Charlie, Mark, Betty, Peter, Tessa, Judy, Doreen, Dan, Claire and Sandy. We pray for those who are bereaved and especially remember those who have recently died, including Richard Williams and Peter Farley, both of whom their funerals take place this week. Be with their families and friends at this sad time.

Harvest Festivals

You are invited to bring your harvest goods to our two Harvest Services. Ockley will distribute their harvest locally and Capel will be collecting foodstuff for the Dorking Foodbank.

'Never say Dy!'

Murder Mystery play with supper. Friday 13th at Ockley Village Hall and Saturday 14th at Capel Memorial Hall. Don't forget to book your tickets as they are selling fast! Also raffle prizes needed for both performances.
