

Easter Day is still seven days away, yet the services and events of Holy Week have to lead up to the great climax of Easter morning setting it in the wider context of God's saving purposes for humankind. Today, Palm Sunday is marked by the great contrast between the excited crowds who welcomed Jesus as he entered Jerusalem, and the baying mob who howled just a few days later for him to be crucified. Today we read the full account of the Passion according to St Mark in place of the sermon. Lord of all healing we bring before you today all who have asked for our prayers: Jennifer, Sally, Nicky, Simon, Eddie, Peter, Tessa, Dan, Claire, Nick, Charlie, Chris, Shirley, Michael, James, Jackie, Jane, Anne, Mai and Doug. We also lift to you those whose names are on our prayer board. We pray for all who are recently bereaved and pray most especially for Shirley, Graham and their family and friends, following the death of their beloved son Toby.

Soup Lunches - last one!!

Join us for a soup lunch this Wednesday from 12pm onwards for homemade soup lunch. Either to eat in or take away! If taking away please bring your own container if you can. Everyone has been very generous with their donations - do come and support the last one so we can send a great donation to those affected by the cost of living through the Bishop of Guildford's Lent Appeal.

APCM

This year the APCM (Annual Parochial Church Meeting) will be held on Sunday April 7th at 11.45am at St John the Baptist Capel. Please join us for this annual meeting where we can come together to review the past year in our wonderful parish. If you wish to be elected to serve on the PCC please complete a nomination form, with Proposer and Seconder and hand it to the Chairman or Secretary at the beginning of the APCM.

Benedictine Spirituality Group Would you like to explore how the wisdom of St Benedict supports and guides us in our everyday lives? If you might be interested in knowing more please email Rev Jo: joanna.elvidge1@googlemail.com or speak/email Rev Liz. Leaflets with more information at back of church.
