

As God, the Creator, Son and Spirit, is woven deeply through every aspect of creation, so we present our concerns for the world and ourselves, confident in the promise of divine grace to bring release, freedom and hope. May the Church gain fresh confidence to live the gospel of love as we share Christ's story. We pray for those who live in places where their freedom is suppressed We pray for justice and equality for members of every nation, praying for government leaders that they may follow the sacrificial nature of Christ in their priorities and programmes. We pray for our own nation at this time of pre-election. As the balance of nature shifts alarmingly we pray for the willingness, vision and determination that nations will take the necessary hard decisions which preserve the earth's sustainability. We pray for the healing, comfort and strengthening of all who are suffering or struggling with pain, stress or troubles of mind, body and spirit. We name before you Jennifer, Sally, Nicky, Simon, Eddie, Tessa, Dan, Claire, Nick, Chris, Shirley, Michael, Jane, Anne, Mai, Jonny and David. We also lift to you those whose names are on our prayer board. We pray for all who are grieving the loss of someone they love; that the Spirit will comfort them with the reassurance of new beginnings.

We congratulate and welcome Chloe and Daniel along with their families and friends as they are married today at St Margaret's Church Ockley. We pray that God will bless their special day and bless their married life together strengthening and guiding them with the love that only He can give.
