Today we celebrate the second of our Harvest Festivals, this time at Capel! All donations gratefully received will go to support Dorking Foodbank and Leatherhead START. Our lovely Scott Broadwood School will be holding their harvest school service in church shortly as well. Thank you everyone for your generosity for both Ockley and Capel harvest festivals. We give thanks for the joy of God's kingdom, which far surpasses any earthly joy. We pray of those who are persecuted for their faith. We ask that God will protect them and sustain them. We pray for those who are sick, who don't have enough to eat, or who mourn their loved ones. We ask God to show us how to help, both practically and with spiritual and emotional support. We pray for those who believe that success in life consists of how much money they can accumulate, asking God to show them a better way. We pray for those who request our continued prayers, for Jennifer, Sally, Nicky, Simon, Eddie, Tessa, Claire, Nick, Chris, Shirley, Jane, Anne, Jonny, David, Rev Jo and George.

The Parents Circle At the Parents Circle, bereaved Palestinians and Israelis - those who have paid the highest price - families are enabled to tell their personal stories of bereavement choosing to engage in dialogue instead of revenge. This very interesting organisation works to bring reconciliation, justice and lasting peace Using peaceful dialogue diplomacy and a commitment to finding common ground. If you would like to more about their groundbreaking work do visit their website www.theparentscircle.org This initiative deserves our attention and prayers.
