

Father God, on this Mothering Sunday we turn our thoughts and prayers to our families. We thank you for all those who behave as mothers towards us whether we are related to them or not. We pause for a moment to think about what we can do to show kindness and care to them too. We particularly pray for those for whom this Mothering Sunday is a very painful day, whether through recent loss or other circumstances and for those who have lost a child.

We give thanks for Revd Andrew Coe who is preaching to us today, following the recent loss of his mother, and as he retires as our Surrey Weald Team Rector. We thank you for his ministry over many years and for the formation of the team. We pray for the future that you will lead the right person to take up the Team Rector role.

We pray too for our world, especially the recent powerful earthquake in Myanmar which was felt over South East Asia. We pray for all who died as a result, for the bereaved and for the injured and trapped.

We pray for those who are sick or struggling. We ask that they may know that God is with them even in the darkest times. We bring before you Kim, Jennifer, Philomena, Nicky, Tessa, Nick, George, Sally, Doreen, Graham and Joy. We pray for those who grieve; that through the support of loved ones and the power of the Spirit they might know God's comfort. We remember with love Pat White
