

The risen and glorified Jesus invites us to recognise him in our midst, calling us to offer our lives afresh to him, and to hear anew his words of comfort and call. We turn to the risen Lord in our midst, bringing ourselves and our world before him and praying for healing and salvation. We pray for all those in despair who have turned away from God; that they know God's healing and restoration. We pray for those who have turned away from one another; that their love might be renewed. We give thanks for the Church, praying that it might always be a community of hope and love. We pray for ourselves; that we might be faithful to our calling to follow Jesus.

God of healing and restoration, we pray for all who are suffering in mind, body or spirit and we bring before you today: Kim, Jennifer, Philomena, Nicky, Tessa, Nick, George, Sally, Doreen, Joy and Dianne. We pray for all who mourn especially remembering the families and friends of Graham Webster and Jack Sunda. Please keep Shirley Dean Webster in your prayers following a recent house fire.

VE DAY - 80 Years Commemoration

I am sure you know that VE Day is on Thursday this week but this Monday national events begin at the Cenotaph which is acting as a place of silent tribute to those who died in WW2. A military procession will begin at 12pm from Parliament Square to Buckingham Palace followed by a flypast of aircraft including the Red Arrows. There are lots of other events happening all week and on D Day itself a service of thanksgiving at Westminster Abbey. All very poignant and interesting.
