

Please note there are no services in the parish today but today's lectionary readings for the Second Sunday after Trinity are here for your own study....

Today's readings are about looking forward, inspired by God's vision for our lives, not clinging to the past though fear or a desire to recreate old situations. So as Gill is ordained this Sunday morning and enters holy orders, we pray for her as she embraces a new future. We pray that God will be with her throughout her ministry and with her family who support her with their own love and prayers. We look forward to being with Gill at the cathedral and celebrating afterwards at Ockley Village Hall from 1 o'clock onwards. All are welcome!! We come to God in gratitude for all that's been good in our past and in anticipation of the things that lie ahead. Where people are downcast by their circumstances and unable to see a way forward, may God bring vision and hope. Where people struggle to make ends meet may God bring relief. Where people make plans, may they focus on the kingdom of God. Where people reach the end of their time on earth, may they be filled with the joyful certainty of seeing God face to face. Healing Lord, we pray for all who are suffering in mind, body or spirit: Jennifer, Tessa, Philomena, Nicky, Nick, George, Sally, Doreen, Joy, Shirley, Dianne and Hannah. We pray for those recently bereaved bringing before you the families and friends of Anthony Gooda and Eric Sutcliffe.

Eric - a message from the family

"Eric meant the world to us and we know he meant so much to so many. We have therefore decided to hold a funeral service to which all are welcome at 2pm on Tuesday 8th July at St John's in Capel. The service will be followed by tea and cakes in the church. Bright colours and pretty dresses are welcome - no need to wear black. Family flowers only with any donations to the church he was so much a part of. We would also love to collect your memories, photos, and stories. Please email rememberingeric1932@gmail.com whether it's a moment you shared, a word he said, or something he taught you - it will help us to remember the fullness of who he was."
