

On this third Sunday after Trinity we continue to rejoice in the miracle of three. Our loving Creator came among us in our Saviour and remains with us today through the Holy Spirit. As we give thanks that God's love reaches out to all people, let us pray for all who spread the Gospel in today's world, we pray that they may remember the example of Jesus in accepting others. We pray that those who reject the Gospel message will have their hearts opened to God's love and those who are persecuted for accepting it, we pray that their faith might remain steadfast. For a world that desperately needs to hear the message of peace, we pray that justice and mercy might prevail in all nations. For all who suffer in body, mind or spirit, we pray that their pain might be eased and their fears relieved by the knowledge that God is near. So draw close dear Lord to Jennifer, Tessa, Philomena, Nicky, Nick, George, Sally, Doreen, Joy, Shirley, Dianne and Hannah. Loving God, we commend to you those who have served your Son here on earth and now celebrate his victory with him in heaven and we pray for those most recently bereaved - the family and friends of Eric Sutcliffe.

Eric's funeral

All are welcome to attend Eric's service this Tuesday at 2pm at Capel Church. The service will be followed by tea and cakes in the church. Bright colours and pretty dresses are welcome - no need to wear black. Family flowers only with any donations to the church he was so much a part of. The family would also love to collect your memories, photos, and stories. Please email rememberingeric1932@gmail.com whether its a moment you shared, a word he said, or something he taught you - "it will help us to remember the fullness of who he was."

Capel Military Show - happening now!!

We will be there Friday, Saturday and Sunday with our refreshment stand. Make sure to come and say hello if you are going to be there!

Congratulations Reverend Gill!

What a wonderful occasion at Guildford Cathedral for Gill's ordination as Deacon. Gill wishes to thank everyone for their support and to those who provided food for the celebration bring and share afterwards. We celebrate with Gill and pray God's blessing giving thanks on her future ministry among us.

Thank you Graham and Revd Jo for taking our services this morning!!
