

On this second Sunday after Trinity we give thanks for God's promise of salvation revealed to us in the loving care of the Father, the redeeming sacrifice of the Son and the constant companionship of the Holy Spirit.

We give thanks for the Church throughout the world. May disciples today seek to prove God's love by sharing the good news with others. We give thanks for all who promote peace and justice. May those who flee dangerous places to seek safety be treated with compassion and respect. We pray for all those affected by the recent street violence in Belfast and elsewhere. We give thanks for all who work to help others. May those who suffer in body, mind or spirit be comforted by knowing that God is near them and we pray today for Tessa, Nicky, Nick, George, Sally, Doreen, Joy, Shirley, Margaret, Chris, Paul, Peter, Hannah, Megan, Richard, Carol, Eddie, Phil, Archie, Chris, Joanne, Margaret and Will. We give thanks for those closest to us. May we reach out to those who are different from us in any way.

We give thanks for the promise of eternal life and remember those we love who now rest in peace. We remember today our friend known to so many in Ockley, Fay Jolly who died this week. May her family and friends find comfort in your promises O Lord. We also remember Eileen Heath whose funeral took place on Friday last and Eric Sutcliffe today on the first anniversary of his death, we thank God for his life and all he meant to so many, especially his beloved Jessie and family.

Its that time of year again!
