

On this Fifth Sunday after Trinity we thank you, God, that in your compassion you act beyond our imagination and so we rest ourselves and our concerns in your care. We recall the times when we have sensed God's power breaking through in our lives beyond what we could have imagined, and we give thanks.

We bring to God areas of the world locked in long term conflict that defies human solution, asking that a way of peace may be found.

We pray for the peoples of Venezuela following the terrible earthquakes which have taken so many lives. We pray that more professional help may be accessed, to free those who have died from the wreckage as anxious relatives and friends despair.

We bring to God those who are wearied by burdens of responsibility, grief, poverty or ill health, asking that the Lord may bring rest and restore hope.

We pray for those who have asked for our prayers naming before you: Tessa, Nicky, Nick, George, Sally, Doreen, Joy, Shirley, Margaret, Chris, Paul, Peter, Hannah, Megan, Richard, Carol, Eddie, Phil, Archie, Chris, Joanne, Margaret, Will, Adam and Noah. We give thanks for the promise of eternal life and remember those we love who now rest in peace. We remember Fay Jolly whose funeral takes place this week, praying for her family and all who know and love her.

Congratulations !!

What a wonderful occasion last Saturday for Revd Gill and her fellow deacons as they were priested at Guildford Cathedral. Gill led and presided at Holy Communion Last Sunday at St Margaret's Ockley. We celebrated further following this with a wonderful bring and share lunch at the village hall.

Scott Broadwood Garden Party

A wonderful day of celebration for our little school last Friday with their annual pageant and later on a garden party for everyone. Several past headteachers, Governors, pupils and parents gathered to remember the joy and wonderful start to their education that our village school provided. Do join us for a special Service Thanksgiving for our school especially as this year marks its 200th anniversary. Wednesday 15th July at 9.10am. All welcome.
