

Being a Christian is not always easy, but we serve a master who loves us so much that he was prepared to share our human nature, live among us and suffer and die for us. That love is what inspires us to follow Christ, to come together in worship today and to bring to God any problems we are currently struggling with and any ways in which we may feel inadequate.

We pray for those who are new to the faith. May they not be discouraged when following Christ becomes tough, but grow stronger in faith. We particularly pray for those who are being baptised and confirmed with Bishop Paul on Wednesday. We pray and give thanks for Bishop Paul as we welcome him to our parish this week.

We pray for those who face persecution around the world. May they know God's love for them especially deeply and may God grant them the courage they need.

We pray for those affected by the massive flash flood on the Nepal-Tibet border and for those rescuers looking for survivors. We pray for those who are waiting anxiously for news of their loved ones. We pray for those who are sick and suffering and those who have asked for our prayers: Tessa, Nicky, Nick, George, Sally, Joy, Margaret, Chris, Paul, Peter, Hannah, Megan, Richard, Carol, Eddie, Chris, Joanne, Margaret, Will, Adam, Noah and Chris. May they know your healing love and presence. We remember those who have died recently, especially the family and friends of Bridget Downes, Doreen Edghill, and Peter Tombs (Revd Liz's and Doug's friend)
